Notice Extraordinary!

WE WOULD NOTIFY the merchants and the public generally in the Western States that the Match Manufactory of E. W. PIERCE & CO., Milwaukee, Wis., is in full and successful operation, notwithstanding the declarations of a match concern in Detroit, Mich., that our establishment had burned down—that E. W. Pierce & Co. had failed—that no more E. W. Pierce's matches would be seen in market, &c. &c. We are well aware that all such assertions will in due time recoil with bad effect upon the party who originated them, and what we wish is, that the public should be set right in the matter. We now have facilities for manufacturing matches as cheap, or cheaper than any other establishment in the West, and as to the quality, we will leave those who have used them for the last thirteen years to be the judges, and will only remark that our business has increased from less than $1600, in 1844, to more than $50,000, in 1856.

All orders for matches promptly filled.

Beware of Counterfeits!

☞ None genuine unless labelled E. W. PIERCE.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON,
PROPRIETORS,
Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE:
Saturday Morning, Feb. 28.

A Remarkable Cure.

The veteran Senator from Michigan, Gov. Cass, has, it is well-known, been afflicted all his life with a very severe form of Anglo-phobia. This disease having long since become chronic and the spasms increasing, from time to time, in number and severity, his friends had nearly abandoned all hope of ever seeing him restored to sound health. Late advices from Washington, however, warrant the belief that a very gratifying and remarkable cure has just been effected in this extraordinary case. It is asserted—and apparently on good grounds—that Gen. Cass made his appearance and a speech in the Senate last week, in perfect health and free from every trace of Anglo-phobia. The credit of the cure is given to Dr. JAMES BUCHANAN, President elect, and the prescription is said to have been a Cabinet office. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Courier & Enquirer thus chronicles this interesting politico-medical case:

"I informed you in a brief line last night of the gratifying position taken by Gen. Cass, Premier elect, in a secret debate of the Senate.—The venerable Statesman declared, in substance, that he should not carry into the administration which is to rule the country for the next four years, the inevitable war policy with Great Britain, but should favor peace not only with our foster mother, but with all the world, I need not say that the announcement has produced a very agreeable and tranquilizing sensation."

"It is construed as furnishing a guarantee that the foreign policy of the government will be conducted upon principles adverse to fillibusterism."

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Feb. 26, '57.

I send a statement in relation to the banks of the State, which contains numerous items of interest to commercial people, generally. It will be seen that new banks are coming in rapidly; and also that the banks whose deposites are partly composed of California stocks have added to their deposites to make up the small deficiency arising from the depreciation of those stocks.

Last evening, instead of being occupied with speechmaking as was proposed, was spent in good hard work; and good progress was made in the general file. But after all, the Assembly gets on very slowly, and business is badly behind to have anybody expect the Legislature to get through well—though they may get through somehow—by Monday noon.

After rising from Committee of the whole, the Fox River Valley R. R. bill was taken up, an amendment by Mr. Strong, compelling the Company to refund any stock held in Waukesha Co. was carried. A proposition by Mr. Hawley to repeal the clause in the charter allowing the branch to Milwaukee, was voted down by a large majority. The bill was then ordered to be engrossed. To place the whole story together,—when to-day the bill came up for a third reading and passage, Mr. Reymert, who had advocated it very earnestly theretofore, arose and backed square down, saying that there were quarrels in the Company, &c., and refused to uphold it any longer. The bill was then indefinitely postponed.

The Report of the Joint Committee to investigate the State Departments was partly read.—So far as it was read, it appeared that the Treasury, Bank Comptroller's, and Secretary of State's Departments are all right, and the officers are highly complimented. In the School Land Department there were some discrepancies found, which, however, were explained satisfactorily.

The Committee report half a dozen bills, the passage of which they think is called for.

The Committee on Town and County Organization made an adverse report, unanimously, on the Iowa County seat bill.

In Senate this morning, the Geological Survey bill (in the form as last noticed), and the Literature Fund bill, passed.

The Judiciary Committee reported against the restoration of the death penalty.

In the afternoon, the Senate passed a large number of bills, mostly local, and unimportant except to particular sections. Among the bills passed, I notice one exempting from taxation the property of firemen in Milwaukee to the amount of $1000—one chartering, with a long list of Directors, located in different parts of the State, as the United States Trust Co.—to do all sorts of things implied in the word "trust"—among them taking care of the funds of orphans, wards, &c.—and one providing that assessors shall collect statistics of agriculture, mechanic arts, &c.

The Asylum bills and the Capitol enlargement bill were under discussion, without conclusion. The Swamp Land bill was turned over to a committee to be put into shapes.

In Assembly this morning, a resolution was introduced, looking to an extension of the session. I do not think it will carry. A resolution was adopted, at the instance on Mr. M. M. Strong, which will have a good effect in clearing away unimportant matters to-morrow, and next day, the rules prohibiting debate being enforced in the morning, while the afternoon, and evenings allow of discussion. As I write, the Committee of the whole, with Mr. Walker for Chairman, is grinding out bills at double quick time.

Mr. Hertel from the Milwaukee delegation, reported unfavorably on the bill allowing an appeal from the awards of street juries.

A minority report from Mr. Mason, of the railroad committee, setting forth his opinion that it is best to have an investigation of the alleged bribery in railroad legislation, was read,—and then the whole subject was indefinitely postponed 47 to 35.

When the bill in relation to the Chicago St. Paul & Fond du Lac R. R. came up for passage, Mr. Hertel made an able speech against it; but it was of no use, and the bill passed; and it seems probable that this monstrous injustice will now be consummated. The object of the amendment is distinctly to enable the Chicago Company to make such discriminating rates of fare and freight as to operate against the roads leading to the lake in this state!

The Janssen bill had another turn to-day. A motion to table it failed by a vote of 42 to 46, and the bill finally went to the Judiciary Committee for an amendment providing that the sureties shall agree not to be released by the suspension of suits—that is the substance of it.

A bill chartering the "Berlin & Waukesha R. R. Co." gave rise to some discussion. Mr. Runals opposed it in a very able speech, directed to the point of the bad policy and injustice of chartering new roads over or near routes on which other companies are at work. But one might as well talk to the wind. This Legislature seems to be acting with the determination to bring ruin, as far as possible, on the existing railroad interests of the State.

A large number of bills, including the University bill, were ordered engrossed.

To give a poetical idea of the doings to-day, and now-a-days, I subjoin a couple of pages of Hiawathic rhymes, handed to me by a friend from Iowa Co., who has been inspired by the legislative atmosphere:—

W. H. W.

If you wish to hear my story,
Hear my story of the visions;
Visions of the great Assembly,
Visions of the various members,
Visions of the Clerks and Speakers,
Visions of the daft reporters,
Visions of the bright eye'd pages,
Of the speeches, of the motions,
Of the way the time is wasted,
Of the jokes of tall Oramse,
Of the tricks of "Iron" Milwaukee,
[illegible]
Points of order from Kenosha,
Calls of House from Sauk and Crawford,
Scrip from Flambeau, Lots from Manston,
Streams of Lager from the Lobby,
Whiskey flowing from the Lobby,
Brandy smashes from the Lobby,
Little boys with little apples,
Little boys with 'lasses candy;
Mighty Noggie, wildly talking,
Graceful Haertel, quick replying,
Members whisp'ring, writing, walking,
Bored by lobbies, by each other,
Boring messengers themselves with errands,
Gallery chaps in wonder gazing,
At the collocated wisdom,
Collocated noise, confusion,
Read, and what you see, you will see.
When the wild rice all was gathered,
When the Autumn moon was shining,
Shining on Wisconsin's rapids,
On the smooth lake's placid waters,
On the prairies, on the mountains,
In the pine clad northern ridges,
O'er the waving Southern meadows;
When the Heron, the Shu-shu-gah,
Strained his wing for warmer marshes,
Then the holloi, then the people,
Gathered at their council lodges,
Chose their warriors, and their head-men,
Pouring out their great libations
To their Manitou, their Spirit,
Pouring in their great libations
All in honor of their Spirit—
Each one with his private birch-bark—
Birch-bark-ballot in his right hand—
To the medicine the inspector,
Each the birch-bark-ballot handing—
Each by tribe and band and nation,
Choosing thus their chiefs and headmen,
By the like of rice—Mendora—
There to light the yearly Lodge fire
For the welfare of the nations—
From the Lake to Mississippi—
There they are, and these their doings.

MADISON CHARTER ELECTION.—A People's Convention held at Madison Wednesday, nominated FRANCIS G. TIBBITS, for Mayor, and CHARLES H. BILLINGS, for Treasurer. Resolutions were passed to nominate Ward tickets also. The election comes off on Monday next.

THE CAMELS HAVE COME.—The supply-ship David D. Porter, Lt. Corning, arrived at New York, Feb. 23d from Smyrna, Nov. 18th, with 44 camels. Put into Malta Dec. 1st, and sailed 7th. Had very rough weather in the Mediterranean. Three camels died before passing the Straits; passed the Straits Dec. 20th; since they have had pleasant weather.

The Foreign News by the Asia.

Our New York exchanges of the 24th bring us full details of the news by the Asia; the telegraph having only furnished a skeleton of them. The chief items of interest are the Queen's speech, the discussions in Parliament thereon; the progress of the war in Persia and China, and the threatening state of affairs in Italy.

The Queen's speech, which was read by the Lord Chancellor (her majesty not finding it convenient to appear in public just now) is full of the usual common places. The only reference to the United States is the following:

Her Majesty commands us to inform you that she has been engaged in negotiations with the Government of the United States, and also with the Government of Honduras, which she trusts will be successful in removing all cause of misunderstanding with respect to Central America.

The speech speaks hopefully of political affairs on the Continent, with the exception of the two Sicilies; the Queen and the French Emperor having "withdrawn their missions from the Court of Naples" in consequence of the manner in which King Bomba received their proffered intervention in the affairs of his kingdom. The speech justifies the course of the British authorities at Canton, and "regrets" the necessity of the war with Persia. A renewal of "the privileges of the Bank of England" is recommended, and gratification expressed at the generally prosperous condition of the British People.

The Speech—or rather the policy of Ministers—was sharply attacked in both the Lords and the Commons; but the Ministers were sustained by decisive majorities. The opposition, however, promises to be vigorous and hopes to be successful.

The English have fortified and occupied Bushire, on the Persian Gulf, and their forces have pushed into the interior. It was stated by Lord Clarendon that the new Persian Envoy at Paris had made peace proposals to the British Minister there. Nothing later from China.

In France, the most exciting event had been the execution of VERGER, the assassin of the Archbishop of Paris. The scene is thus described by the correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial:

The execution of Verger followed soon upon the rejection of his appeal. The appeal was decided on the evening of Thursday last, and the next morning at ten minutes to eight his head fell. The public learned in the same breath the rejection of the appeal for a new trial and his execution. Verger himself did not know till twenty minutes before his execution that his appeal, upon which he had so much counted, had been rejected, or that he was going to be executed. He was awakened from a sound sleep to learn this, to him, astounding intelligence. He would not believe it at first, and then as he became more fully awakened to the truth, he first tried persuasion to obtain more time, and when he found this fail, flew into that terrible state of mental exaltation which had so often characterized his conduct since his imprisonment. He declared that he would not be executed; that they might tear him to pieces, but he would not go to the scaffold.

He denounced the Church and the clergy, and the heresies of which they were the propagators. They were obliged to tear him by force from his bed and to carry him to the room for the final preparation for the scaffold. There, when he felt the cold steel of the scissors trimming the hair on the back of his neck, in order to facilitate the work of the axe, he was seized with a violent trembling, and from that time he offered no more resistance. He seemed all at once to be struck with the reality of his position, and a deep prostration ensued. He was, indeed, so changed, that he was no longer recognizable by his voice or his features.

He was led to the scaffold by the executioner and the chaplain of the prison. Arrived on the last step, he knelt and prayed a moment, and then embraced the chaplain, kissed the crucifix, was pushed forward on the board which serves to carry his head under the axe, and in a twinkling his head was severed from his body. The whole execution was fearfully rapid in its march. If expedition is humanity, then the guillotine of Paris is the most humane instrument of its kind in existence. From the time he issued from the door of the prison, at the distance of a hundred feet from the guillotine, until his mutilated body left the ground in a close carriage, was but one minute.

A recent census of France shows a total population of 36,039,364—of which, 17,870,160 were men, and 18,069,195 women. The increase in the last five years has only been 256,194—less than the increase in the single State of Wisconsin during the same period.

The great French painter, Horace Vernet, has left for the United States to execute the contract offered him by the American Congress for the new capitol at Washington. It is reported at Paris that he is to receive $200,000 for this contract.

The Emperor had granted an interview to Mr. Kelly, an American Engineer, who exhibited plans and estimates for a Ship Canal, without locks, across the Isthmus of Panama. The Emperor was much pleased with the plans of Mr. Kelley, and seem disposed to join with the Government of Great Britain and the United States, if necessary, for the expenses of the preliminary surveys and the location of the route indicated.

In Naples all is excitement, suspicion and terror. The prisons are crowded with victims, and King Bomba keeps his palace guarded and barred. An attempt had been made to assassinate the Archbishop of Matera.

The Archbishop, like the deceased Archbishop of Paris, was struck in the midst of a ceremony, while kneeling at the altar, with a poignard in the hands of a priest. And while the Archbishop was fleeing from the assassin's reach, the latter shot dead with a ball a priest who attempted to shield the Bishop.

IN SPAIN, there are rumors of another Carlist outbreak. The difficulties between Prussia and Switzerland are about settled.

As to Money Markets and the Produce Markets, there was but little change. Consols are better, business rather more active and money less stringent.

ESCAPE OF MURDERERS FROM PRISON—REWARD OFFERED.—Five murderers, sentenced for life to the State Prison at Jackson, Mich., effected their escape from that institution, last Monday night. They were all confined in one tier, apart from the other convicts, and in adjoining cells. They first managed to get into the same cell by digging through the separating walls, and then to get out of the small window, at the back of the cell, by removing the window frame and the iron flanges which held it in its place. Once in the prison yard, they easily scaled the outside wall and were off. A reward of $1,000 was offered for their re-capture, or $200 for any one of them. Two of them, Hitchcock and Reynolds, were retaken Tuesday night and carried back to prison. The other three, as the latest dates, were still at large, though Haynes was closely pursued. These three are thus described:

Lappan is 40 years old, light complexion 5 feet 8 inches and a half high, a scar in India ink on right hand.

Ulum, 45 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches and a half high, two toes of each foot, next the big toe, grown together and stout built.

Haynes, 30 years old, 5 feet ten inches and a quarter, high scar on right leg, stout built.

A SWORD OF THE "SIX HUNDRED."—The editor of the New York Evening Post has seen and handled a relic of Balaklava, in the shape of a sword, wielded by Lord Levison Gower, in the famous charge of the "Six Hundred." It is a Scottish claymore of great antiquity—having been in the possession of the Granville family for several centuries—made of the finest tempered steel, with basket hilt of the same material, and measures about three feet from point to guard. The owner presented it to Captain Du Riviere of the Zouaves, the present possessor, who succored him while lying on the field of Balaklava, desperately wounded. The scabbard is dented in several places by the hoofs of horses, and the hilt is slightly injured by the thrust of a Cossack's lance. The charge of the "Light Brigade" is not so recent but that this relic of the event possesses considerable historic interest.

THE TRAIN FAILURE.—The Boston Bee says it is thought that Col. Train will be able to meet his liabilities within a reasonable time. His unsecured debts do not amount to much over $200,000, while his private property in that city and [illegible] considerably exceeds that amount.

Religious Intelligence.

From the Vienna Correspondence of the London Times.

By the circular just addressed by the Archbishop of Vienna to the clergy of his diocese we learn: 1. That the Archbishop is empowered by the Pope to remove, "by dispensation," the prohibition of marriage between Catholic and non-Catholic Christians. 2. That the dispensation will only be granted when it appears certain that all the issue of a mixed marriage will be educated in the Catholic religion. 3. If the bridegroom, being a non-Catholic, promises to have all his children brought up in the Catholic faith, the priest will perform the marriage ceremony, but if he refuses to give such promise, and the affianced bride persist in her resolution to enter into a matrimonial engagement with him, then the Papal brief of May 22, 1841, comes in force, and "the parish priest shall receive the declaration of their resolution to marry in the presence of two witnesses, but shall carefully avoid giving to the act the appearance of an ecclesiastical ceremony."—Hartford Calendar.

The subject of Christian Unity is again somewhat agitated, and the evils of the present divisions deplored. The following is from a very interesting appeal on this subject from the New York Observer:

"We are like rival clans, united indeed against one common foe, but carrying on our warfare each in his own way, without concert with each other, and improving every little interval for a private skirmish among ourselves. Suppose that a great captain, like Washington, had been invited, in our war for liberty, to put himself at the head of the militia of one state, and fight against the foe while every other state was warring independently, would he not have wisely and prudently declined the doubtful honor, and urged all to unite, telling that in union was strength? If Jesus Christ is to conduct the armies of the cross to the conquest of the world, which branch of them shall be head? Each sect says, "Ours, of course." His reply, I fear, would be, "None of them." Such a struggling, disconnected army might well shame and discourage any leader.

Why is it that modern missions are so unsuccessful, compared with those of the first preachers of the gospel? We have the same word of God, the same Holy Spirit, men of piety equal to that of many, if not of any, in the apostolic age, preachers ready to become martyrs for Christ's cause, more money contributed for missions, greater facilities of travel, less violence on the part of heathen, the aid of the press, and often the protection of the civil power. Every way, the advantage seems to be with us; but not the success? Why is this? The early church was not a divided church. Every time the Holy Ghost was poured out in those large effusions which converted thousands in a day, we are told in reiterated and strong terms, that "they were all of one accord in one place;" that "they lifted up their voice to God with one accord;" that "the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and one soul." There were divisions in the apostolic day, but not carried to such an extent as to lead to a separate communion and ministry.

THE SPIRITUALISTS.—The village of Ludlow, in Western Massachussetts, recently became scandalized by the theories of a free-love circle being carried to practical results. Mr. Olivord, of Springfield, professed to have had a communication from his deceased wife, announcing the intelligence that her spirit had taken possession of the body of a Mrs. Clark, of Ludlow. Mr. Clark, who was also a spiritualist, at once surrendered his marital rights. Common scandal also named a sister of Mrs. Clark as a participant in these left-handed and irregular nuptials. On Sunday evening the neighbors, incensed, came down. The Spiritual high priest was treated to a coat of tar and feathers, and a free ride out of town. The females, whose virtue had yielded to their faith, also received warning to leave.—Hartford Calendar.

A MUNIFICENT COLLECTION.—The Protestant Churchman says that the collection for Free Missions in the Church of the Ascension in N. Y. city on Sunday morning, amounting to the noble sum of five thousand and one hundred dollars. The Mission at the "Five Points" is, we believe, sustained by this Church.

WISCONSIN.—NASHOTAH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—From the catalogue of this Institution just received, it appears there are in it at present forty-one students, twenty of whom are candidates for Holy Orders. We take the following extract from the Address of the graduates and students:

"The Institution has now been so long before the Church, that the history of its original growth need not be repeated. Through good report and evil report—through seasons of comfort and seasons of poverty, and even suffering, with occasional trials and griefs—yet with infinitely more numerous blessings from the kind words and deeds of those who knew and loved her, Nashotah has quietly pursued her way, under the guidance of the great Head of the Church, until now her annual term has opened with brighter hopes and more cheering prospects than were even granted her before. We have indeed cause for devout gratitude to Almighty God for His continued preservation and blessings—and for earnest thanks to the members of his Church, through whose prayers and alms the work has been carried on.

* * * *

Beyond and above all, however, would we mention the noble endowment, which for the last eleven years has been gradually accumulating for the benefit of Nashotah. Those who read may start at the mention of an endowment belonging to Nashotah. It is an endowment which we feel to be better than houses and lands and rich possessions, even that of the prayers and alms of the faithful. Were it right to lift the veil that humility throws over deeds of charity, an account of some of the offerings which have come to Nashotah during the past eleven years, would cause the hearts of many to burn. It is not the gifts of the rich that have sustained Nashotah. With a few exceptions, here and there, it has been the offerings of those who have given, if not of their penury, at least not of their abundance. Blessed are they who give, and blessed are they who receive such gifts as these. We cannot but feel that there must be something in such offerings which must urge on and quicken the faithful candidate for Holy Orders, in his work of preparation. To know that for him there have been so many prayers, so many self-denials, so many labours, is indeed an encouragement. When to this is added the daily course of prayers, which summer and winter never ceases—the Holy Communion, which every Sunday is administered—the quiet retirement, and the thorough course of studies which are given us, we cannot but declare our conviction, that whatever is necessary for a proper Theological training is, by God's mercy, afforded.

From the N. Y. Tribune, Feb 9.

About that Thousand Dollars.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.

I yesterday emerged from behind the barrier of broken bridges, washed out sluices, flooded prairies and sunken tracks which bar the circulation of newspapers and dispel the monotony of railroad travelling westward of this point, but did not find time to post myself up thoroughly in the news of the day, so that I was rather startled last evening at Waukegan by the tidings that a messenger from the House of Representatives had been looking for me! As I did not comprehend how any one could have really looked for me without finding me, I remained in the fog until my return to this city to day, when I discovered that the looking aforesaid was performed in New York, some thousand miles or so from the region where I was known to be, and of course without any positive result. And yet, I judge from what I see in Eastern journals, nothing but the intervention of the fearful Burdell Murder has prevented my achieving at least momentary distinction without being personally aware of it; just as Byron says, "I awoke one morning and found myself famous." Even the chronic dullness of Harpers' Weekly is enlivened by the announcement that I was sent for officially to explain a certain mysterious $1,000 draft, but could not be found—that is, in New York, at a time when my letters, appearing every two or three days in the Tribune, showed that I was westward of the Illinois, at least, and probably of the Mississippi. How many other journals have contained similar information I cannot here ascertain; but I observe that my excellent friend of the Buffalo Express, (who was a candidate for Clerk of our present Assembly, and didn't get my support, and couldn't have been elected if he had it) dilates at length and unctuously hereabouts on my sometime efforts to reform Congress, and indulges in sundry sneers at my "disinterestedness." Now, as to my efforts at reforming Congress, I must acknowledge the corn.

Years ago, when I was younger and greater than I now am, I did labor earnestly and hopefully to reform some of the grossest abuses of Congress, and was rewarded by general derision. Perhaps the mockers were right on the practical question; and yet were I once more in the House, as I trust I never shall be, I should feel bound, as a matter of duty, to take the course I did before, no matter with what personal, or general results. But from the imputation of "disinterestedness" I beg, once and forever, to be excused. If "disinterestedness" implies a disposition to work for nothing and find yourself, I am very sure I am disinterested; I trust I never shall be; and if ever I was, (which I doubt) I have long since outgrown the folly. And if any committee or member of Congress should ever be bored by suggestions or solicitations on my part looking to the advancement of any pecuniary interest whatever, I beg said committee or member to infer that I am not only paid for my efforts in that capacity, but very well paid. And if it had been true that I was hired by any railroad or other company to engineer a land-jobbing bill through this or any other Congress, and had been supplied with $1,000 by said company, I feel very sure that no Congressional Corruptional Committee ever need come smelling around after I had paid myself what I considered a fair compensation for my own services, there would be nothing left wherewith to bribe members of Congress—no not the first dime.

But I am confident no one has testified that I was paid $1,000, one dollar, one cent, or any other sum, either for my own services as an agent before Congress, or to enable me to retain any one else in that capacity, simply because such testimony would be false. Mr. John Stryker is said to have testified that he paid me $1,000 for some purpose; and in fact, just as I was leaving Washington for the last time, I was entrusted, on behalf of Mr. Stryker, with a draft for that sum on the treasurer of his company in New York, which draft I understood was to meet one of like amount which would soon be drawn on me by an agent employed to look after the interests of the company in the anticipated absence of Mr. Stryker on a western journey.

Accordingly, I did receive in New York notice of such a draft on me some three or four weeks thereafter, and, after consulting the Treasurer of the Company, I accepted said draft on me and paid it with the proceeds of Mr. Stryker's draft, which up to that moment had remained in my pocket-book unpresented, and of course unaccepted. I would here give the name of the drawer of this draft on me; but, as he is certainly not a Member of Congress, and has been already before the Investigating Committee, and doubtless told the whole story, I forbear.

Let my Buffalo friend note herein the warning against what he calls "disinterestedness"—a failing to which he is probably addicted. Had I really been a lobby agent for this Des Moines Company and anxious to conceal that fact, my name would of course have never greeted the public in conection with said Company's affairs, but, as I never was hired by said Company, never paid nor promised, nor offered anything by it, and never had a shadow of interest in its prosperity in any way, except that I knew one or two valued friends were among its public stockholders, I find my name bruited all over the country as one of its hirelings, and there are probably some men so malicious as actually to believe the slander. Well let them.

HORACE GREELEY.

NAVIGATION.—Present appearances indicate an early opening of navigation. Our river is clear of ice and none can be seen from Malden to Lake Erie. A gentleman informs us that none can be seen in the lake from the mouth of the Huron river. There is yet, it is said, much ice in Lake St. Clair.—Detroit Free Press, Feb. 25.

Lake Michigan is entirely free from ice, and many of our Harbors open. Vessels have commenced their trips, and in a week, or so, the steamers will begin to run.

THE ONLY MEDAL AWARDED
BY THE NEW YORK EXHIBITION to the English or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, for their Worcestershire Sauce,
Whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extant.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus:—"I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal. I can with truth say there is nothing in a traveller's baggage so essential to his comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce."

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms:—"Tell Lea & Perrins that their sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is in my opinion the most palatable as well as the most wholesome sauce made."

This Sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created, has led to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

CIRCUIT COURT, FEB. 27.

HON. A. W. RANDALL PRESIDING.

"ERIN GO BRAGH" COMING PADDY OVER THE PROSECUTION.—A man named Thomas O'Donnell alias 'Erin Go Bragh' was brought up from the jail to be tried on an indictment for stealing a barrel of flour. The prisoner had previously been arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The Court enquired of him if he was ready for trial, and whether he had any Counsel.

The prisoner replied that "Major Put" had agreed to defend him, but was not forthcoming.

The Court then assigned Mr. Prentiss to defend him, who, after a few minutes' conversation with the prisoner, stated that the plea of not guilty would be withdrawn, and a plea of guilty entered, and upon the Court intimating that he should sentence him, his Counsel asked the Court, to take into consideration, in mitigation of punishment, the prisoner's previous good character, its being his first offence; and also that as he understood, the offence was committed while the defendant was under the influence of liquor—that although this was no excuse in law for the offence, it might, he hoped, help to lessen the amount of punishment.

Two witnesses were then sworn and examined as to his character, but neither seemed to throw much light upon it, except to show that he was a "drinking character."

The prisoner, in answer to several questions, told the Judge that he had been 38 years in America, 14 years a policeman in New York, and "this is the first time I ever had a key turned upon me;" he had three small children, 6, 4, and 2 years of age; he had [illegible] years in this State—that when the barrel of [illegible] en, "I'd been drinking successfully for 7 w[illegible] ed his Honor would make the sentence as lig[illegible] could, as he'd never done anything wrong before.

Judge—Mr. O'Donnell, you appear to act and talk like a good-hearted man.

Prisoner—(interrupting)—"I am Sir, its the drink entirely, that's the cause of it. You see, Sir, its a sort of a jealousy that caused it; you see, Sir, my wife and a —"

Judge—Mr. O'Donnell I will impose a short sentence on you on account of the age of your children.

The Judge then sentenced the prisoner to one year's imprisonment at hard labor in the State Prison—the last three days to be solitary confinement.

The prisoner was then removed to jail to await his transfer to Waupun.

Its a lucky thing for O'Donnell that Gillman got the Rochester drafts cashed; thus causing the absence of the Sheriff and Chief of Police; and also that the Counsel assigned him by the Court had the good sense and the honesty to advise the plea of guilty. It saved the prisoner at least 2 years' imprisonment. He had never paid Mr. Foote a cent to defend him.

Peter Kane was put on his trial, on a charge of having counterfeit money in his possession, with intent to pass the same.

Peter Kane was acquitted after about half an hour's deliberation of the Jury.

Milwaukee Horticultural Society.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Milwaukee Horticultural Society, held on the first Monday of February, inst., at the Young Men's Association Rooms, the regular standing committees for the year were appointed by the President. The officers and committees for the present year are as follows:

President—Thomas Hislop.

Vice Presidents—B. McVickar, I. A. Lapham.

Corresponding Secretary—Charles Hurd.

Recording Secretary—R. N. Messinger.

Treasurer—David Ferguson.

Executive Committee—Henry Spaan, Peter Cannon, John Bell.

On Library and Publications—I. A. Lapham, W. H. Metcalf, Charles Gifford.

Plants and Flowers, Professional—David Ferguson, C. Peters, W. H. Metcalf.

Plants and Flowers, Amateur—Charles Gifford, John Bell, ——— Armstrong.

On Fruits and Synonimes—Hans Crocker, L. W. Weeks, F. Lackner.

On Vegetables—Peter Cannon, Herbert Reed, G. E. Smith.

On Botany—I. A. Lapham, J. W. Dunlap, R. N. Messinger.

The report of the Treasurer was read and accepted, from which it appears that the receipts for the year 1856 were $312,39, and the expenditures $237,49, leaving a balance in the treasury of $74,90. Of the expenditures, $75,00 was for the purchase of books for the library.

The library already contains many of the best authors on Horticulture, Agriculture, Fruit Growing, &c., and will soon be the best library of its class at the West.

The Society has never been on a sounder basis or in a more prosperous condition than at the present time, and its influence has already added much to the gardens and the adornments of the residences of Milwaukee and its vicinity, and needs only the ready co-operation of all who love choice fruits and vegetables for their tables, or the taste and refinement to appreciate the rare and beautiful of the floral kingdom, by becoming members and bestowing their presence at the exhibitions of the Society to make its usefulness felt within and around every home, supplying it with the best of the vegetable kingdom, and grace it with beauty.

The next regular meeting of the Society is on Monday next, at 3 o'clock P. M., at the Young Men's Association Rooms, and it is requested that the daily papers of the city give notice of such meeting.

SELF-INKING PERCUSSION PRINTING PRESS.—This is a Milwaukee invention and decidedly a clever one. Its name explains its qualities. In shape and size, it somewhat resembles the ordinary seal press, though altogether different in action. A slight blow with the open hand upon the flat top of an upright bar makes a distinct impression, which can be repeated as often and as rapidly as the blow itself. A circular cup at the lower end of the bar holds the type, and over their face a self-inking roller passes every time the bar descends. For stamping letters, printing cards, tickets, addresses, &c., or any other like purpose, this Percussion Press strikes us as just the thing. It is the invention of Mr. E. EVERETT BARBERY, of this city, and the Presses are manufactured at the Wisconsin Iron Works, on the Water Power; the proprietor, Mr. A. J. LANGWORTHY, having bought the right for this and four adjoining States. It is the intention of the patentee and manufacturer to apply the principle to larger presses, and they expect to be able to furnish the cheapest and simplest Card Press yet invented.

N. Y. CENTRAL R. R.—HUDSON RIVER OPEN!—Captain COTTON, Agent of the N. Y. Central R. R. in this city, received yesterday the following telegraphic despatch, which is published for the information of the travelling community:

BUFFALO, Feb. 27.

Captain Cotton, Milwaukee:

The New York Central & Hudson River Rail Roads are now in perfect order, and steamboats are running between Albany to New York. ALLEN BUTLER.

FEARFUL RUNAWAY—NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, as a son of Charley Monkwitz, the butcher, was driving his market waggon along Jefferson Street, the horse took fright, started on a run, and making a short turn on the corner of Mason St., brought the waggon into violent collision with a post there. The waggon was broken in two, the boy thrown out and becoming entangled in the reins, was dragged by the horse at full speed over the frozen ground and along the brick side-walk for two entire blocks. Several persons tried to stop the horse, but his furious career baffled their efforts. At length the boy became disentangled from the reins and wreck, at the corner of Jackson and Wisconsin Streets, and was carried at once to his father's house, where he was promptly cared for by Dr. MCKNIGHT. It proved, most fortunately, that no bones were broken nor any serious hurt received, though none who saw the runaway thought it possible for the boy to escape fatal injury.

THE GREAT SWINDLE.—The Buffalo Commercial of Wednesday (25th instant) contains the following information in regard to one of the parties implicated in the recent swindling operations at the west:

Cyrus F. True, who was arrested here on Monday afternoon, was brought before Judge Wells, yesterday, on a writ of habeas corpus, and held to bail in the sum of $0000. We learn that he was discharged last evening.—It is said that True has compromised $60,000 of the fraudulent paper at 50 cents on the dollar. At this rate he has secured $30,000. The total amount of this fraud is enormous.

The Chicago Democratic Press of yesterday states that Gilman—who negotiated the Breck drafts, in this city, Chicago and St. Louis, to the amount of $35,000—has been arrested at New Orleans and will soon be back to see his victims. We hope this report is true.

SAINT BETSEY.—In Punch's Almanac is a "Calendar of Fireside Saints." Prominent among these is SAINT BETSEY, who was wedded to a knight who sailed with Raleigh and brought home tobacco, and the knight smoked. But he thought that St. Betsey, like other fine ladies in the court, would fain that he should smoke out of doors, nor taint with tobacco smoke the tapestry.—Whereupon the knight would reek his garden, his orchard, and in any weather smoke sub Jove. Now, it chanced as the knight smoked, St Betsey came to him and said, "My lord, pray ye, come into the house;" and the knight went with St. Betsey, who took him into a newly cedared room and said, "I pray, my lord, hence forth smoke here, for is it not a shame that you, who are the foundation and prop of your house, should have no place to put your head into and smoke?" And St Betsey led him to a chair, and with her own fingers filled him a pipe; and from that time the knight sat in the cedar chamber and smoked his weed. Saint Betsey is entitled to the most devout devotion, and the highest niche in the temple of Fireside Divinities.

J. W. OTTO & CO., OF CHICAGO.—Attention is called to the card of this firm in another column. The Chicago Democrat speaking of them says:

"Thy are direct importers of the finest foreign Wall Paper, Window shades, Screens, etc. Their workmen are artists of the first class, who do justice to their stock in its applications to the wants and requirements of their patrons. Otto & Co. may well be proud of what their skill and enterprise has accomplished. A large share of our public halls, churches, saloons and private residences, their hand, through their workmen, have touched, only to beautify. In every class of wall decoration they take a prominent rank for fine taste and judgment, and mechanical skill. Our city and country readers and traders generally should remember their claims, and patronise both their wholesale and retail establishments.

NEW SILKS.—In looking over our columns this morning, we would advise our lady readers in particular, and all who want to buy dry goods cheap, in general, not to overlook the advertisement of Messrs. Adler, Newbour & Co., No. 19 Spring Street. They have just received a large assortment of elegant silks, which they will sell at very low figures; one of the firm being in New York at present, and having bought the goods at late auction sales there, enables them to do so.

Don't forget to read their advertisement at least, and if that don't please you, go and examine their new goods, and you will undoubtedly be well paid for your trouble.

YOUNG AMERICA BOWLING SALOON.—Mr. THOS. BURNS, the proprietor of this well known and well-conducted establishment on Main Street, is about to retire from business, and desires, during the fortnight longer that he intends to remain, to see all his old friends and customers, and as many new ones as can conveniently "drop in." To editors and reporters he generously offers "a free pass," as they are supposed to know all about "setting up the pins."

HARPER FOR MARCH.—We are indebted to ARCHIBALD WILSON, 175 East Water Street, for the earliest copy of Harper for March. The illustrated articles are: "North Carolina"—"Albany 50 years ago"—and "From Thebes to the Pyramids." We have four additional chapters of "Little Dorrit," and a great amount and variety of other pleasant reading matter, with some indifferent pictorial jokes and ugly fashions.

IMMERSION IN THE LAKE.—During the recent revival in our city, quite a number of members have been added the Spring Street Methodist Church, under the care of the Rev. Mr. MCCREADING. We learn that several of these will be baptised in the Lake, by immersion, at half past 9 o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) morning, from the beach in the Third Ward.

LA CROSSE BONDS AND STOCKS.—Parties having any of the five year Bonds, or part paid stock of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. to dispose of, will find a customer by calling on J. S. FILLMORE. See his advertisement.

PUTNAM'S MAGAZINE—THE SCHOOLFELLOW.—We are indebted to ARCHIBALD WILSON, 175 East Water street, for early copies of Putnam's Magazine and the Schoolfellow, for March—both choice numbers.

AT HIS OLD STAND.—Caleb Wall has resumed business, in the Auction and Commission line, at his old stand, corner of East Water and Wisconsin streets. Of course, he keeps the City Land Office going also.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Lots 8 and 9, Block 129, (the S. W. corner of "Lynde's Garden") in the First Ward—being 110 feet on Jefferson and 127 feet on Knapp Street—were sold yesterday for $6,500 cash.

FIRST WARD DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—The "Democratic" electors of the First Ward are notified by the Ward Committee that an election will be held at the house of Peter Theis, on Monday afternoon, to nominate candidates for Ward officers.

REAL ESTATE SALES YESTERDAY.—Mr. J. S. FILLMORE, Land and Collecting Agent, No. 248 E. Water st. reports the following registered sales of Real Estate:

☞ Wisdom shall bow down to them, and the great of the earth shall kneel before them. Never could this be said with more truth than in relation to the effect of Herrick's Sugar Coated Pills. Each building is three stories high, with basement containing in all from 16 to 17 rooms, as follows: Two parlors, large hall, vestibule, library room, bath room, kitchen, cellar, dining room, store rooms and six chambers. The houses are heated with furnace register in rooms, marble mantle and grate in rooms, parlor, corner and centre pieces in hall and parlors, bells, &c., &c. In fact the houses are as complete as they can be—each house contains the same number of rooms. There is also an observatory 7 and 14 feet. Either or both said houses will be sold at a great bargain, and on easy terms. Any one wanting to purchase the property will please call on Charles Schley, Esq, Land Agent, or on myself, and they can learn the price, terms, &c., and see the houses.

Albany Buildings, - - Michigan St.

I CALL your attention to some property left with me for sale, and I think a bargain:

Brick House and lot on Jackson St., a bargain.

Two Houses and lot on Jackson St., Seventh Ward.

Another Brick house on " "

At a great bargain Lot 12, and 80 ft Lot 11, Block 134, First Ward.

Also Lot 1, in Block 145, 7th Ward.

This lot is auth rized to be sold at a great bargain, and the great reason why it is to be sold, is, because the owner of it wants money. It must be sold for cash, or its equivalent at a great bargain.

Also Lots 8 and 9, Block 129.

I have some fifty lots in Milwaukee Proper that I will sell at a bargain either by single lot, or all of them, on easy terms.

I would also remind all that bonds and mortgages are bought and sold by me.

CALEB WALL

N. B.—I would remind my fellow-citizens that I give particular attention to the sale of real estate at public auction. The room and location I have is well adapted for that purpose. Persons having tracts of land near the city and wish it laid off into lots, I am prepared to do all description of that class of business, and I will attend to the sale of real estate in any part of our State, provided the sale is of magnitude enough to give attention to.

CALEB WALL.

N. B.—I would give notice to all who want to get a store room in that part of the city where the business must all centre, that I have two of those magnificent stores in the Albany Building for rent, and six of those fine stores in Newhall House. Any one wanting a store will please call on me.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.

A special despatch to the Tribune from Lecompton, Feb. 19th, gives the following version of recent affairs in Kansas. An affray took place here last night in which Sheriff Sherrard was killed and 3 others were wounded. A meeting of Geary's friends was held at the Capitol to sustain his course and express their opinions of the outrage to him. Sherrard and his friends came armed to break it up. When the resolutions were read, Sherrard declared that any one voting for them was a liar and a coward. The excitement grew intense; Sherrard drew his pistol, fired and wounded a man named Shepard. Miscellaneous shooting then began and was continued for some time. Mr. Sherrard was shot through the head by a young man named Jones, who came from Pennsylvania with the Governor. Shepard has 2 bullets in his thigh. Jones was arrested by a bogus sheriff, and the meeting was thus broken up. The Governor called out the troops to prevent his being lynched. The Governor also organized a company to defend himself, but disbanded it at dark last night. More violence is apprehended as great excitement still prevails.

The Legislature have passed territorial election law, based on the census, which provides for the constitutional convention. Only those who may be in the territory in April, and whose names shall be registered, are to vote at the next October election. The Governor has sent in two more vetoes.

Later from California.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.

The steamer Illinois arrived about 7 o'clock with California mails of 6th inst. Connected at Isthmus with the steamer Sonora, which brought down about $1,700,000 in treasure, the bulk of which was transferred to the Illinois, but the exact amount is not stated. The Sonora spoke on the 9th of February, the John L. Stephens, and on the 18th the Golden Gate—both bound for San Francisco.

California news generally unimportant.

A Committee of the Legislature reported that $124,000 had been taken from the treasury. The treasurer accounted for the disappearance by exhibiting a bond by the Pacific Express Co., to pay the next July interest on State debt. The validity of the bond was questioned, as it did not acknowledge the receipt of the money. The treasurer has been called on to give additional security for money in his keeping, and a proposition to impeach him was before the Legislature.

At a meeting of the citizens of Mariposa Co., it was resolved to contest Fremont's claim to the Mariposa tract. A bill was before the Senate providing for working mines on grants made before the treaty of Guadalope Hidalgo, will, if passed, enable Mariposa settlers to defeat Fremont's claim.

Iowa Hill, Placer Co., was nearly destroyed by fire; loss $150,000.

Mexican bandits were devastating the southern counties and murdering the inhabitants. The sheriff of Los Angelos and three constables who were sent to protect the people were murdered. The Legislature appropriated $5,000 to assist in exterminating the robbers.

The recent earthquake caused the ground to open ten feet wide and many miles in length in the southern part of the State.

One hundred men sailed from San Juan, Jan. 21, for San Diego, intending to go thence to Sonora.

The Indians attacked a party journeying from Los Angelos to Sonora and murdered four women and children.

Business in San Francisco continues dull. No improvement in prices. Mines yielding largely, except the Northern, which were blockaded with snow. The receipts of gold in San Francisco are 20 per cent. greater than during the preceding fortnight. Exchange on New York has raised to three and a half.

Kalmer & Co., dry good merchants, had failed. Liabilities $200,000.

Dates from Puget's Sound to Jan. 16th. The Indians had returned and were threatening hostilities.

Dates from Oregon to Jan. 24th. The Columbia river is again open. Great suffering from cold. Many cattle died from starvation. The soldiers at Fort Walla were reduced to half rations.

The Isthmus news is unimportant. Nothing later from Nicaragua. The Columbus arrived at Panama on the 16th, with Costa Rican dates to Febuary 15th, and had 12 deserters from Walker. The Capt. of the Columbus reports that vessels of the allied squadron captured a schooner belonging to Chris Lilly, whilst conveying supplies to Walker the schooner was taken to Union, where Lilly and his partner, Yates, were detained as prisoners of war, the former was to be sent to Guatemala for trial. A point of Trinidad, on San Juan river, was occupied by 400 Costa Ricans, well armed and provisioned. The dates from the South Pacific coast are the same as by the Tennessee.

Washington, Feb. 27

SENATE took up and passed 25 private bills including one permitting Commander Hartstein and others to accept a token of acknowledgment of their humane services from the British Government.

Mr. Adams presented credentials of Jefferson Davis, re-elected U. S. Senator from Mississippi for six years from the 4th of March next.

Post-Office appropriation bill was discussed at some length, when the Senate took a recess until 6 o'clock.

HOUSE—Gilbert sent up a paper which was read, stating that the Committee had refused him a fair hearing and had reported garbled exparte testimony with a view to convict him. He concludes by saying from this moment he has resigned his seat as a member and notified the Governor of New York of the fact. The House evidently was taken by surprise at the announcement. Gilbert immediately left his seat.

Resolutions in the case of Mr. Gilbert, were abled, yeas 135, nays 68.

Morgan sent to the clerk a letter from Mr. Matteson, addressed to Speaker, to request that under resolution previously adopted, he pled his reason for refusing to submit to usurpation of committee of investigation and as a trial had been denied Gilbert, he had no right to expect any larger measure of justice accorded to him. A secret inquisition, without warrant or authority, had taken testimony against him without his knowledge, and that testimony invoked the House to punish, to the greatest extent it could inflict. He deemed it to be his duty to forthwith resign as a member of the House. The reading of Matteson's answer to [illegible] solutions of the committee was earnest[illegible] demanded by various gentlemen [illegible]

[illegible] arner having right to the floor, proceeded to refer to testimony in Matteson's case, saying Matteson admitted giving one fourth of a factory, and having here $100,000 to be given to outsiders, in order to carry Desmoine's bill through the House. If such be moral standing of Mr. Matteson, he should like to know who upheld such an opinion; and hence, he wished to vote on resolution.

Mr. Matteson had denied that he had committed an offence on House, as money was not provided to be used to influence members; but Mr. Warner referred to legal documents, to show Mr. Matteson had been guilty of an offense, justifying severest punishment. Up to the time of his appointment he did not know of any of this outside influence.

Mr. Orr made a brief speech in defence of the report of the Committee, insisting that they were governed by fairness in eliciting testimony.

Bennett, of N. Y., moved to lay the resolution on the table—lost, yeas 33, nays 108. First resolution then read and adopted—yeas 145, nays 19.

Mr. Dunn moved to lay on the table, disagreed to, yeas 75, nays 90, and the resolution adopted.

ALBANY, Feb. 27.

The damage done by the late freshet to the Hudson River R. R. at Albany, has been repaired, and this road is now in operation. Three Express trains leave Albany daily for New York.

MONTPELIER, Feb. 27.

The bill to locate the Capitol at Montpelier passed the House this A. M. by a vote of 139 against 80.

Halifax, 27th 8 30 p. m.

No signs of the Niagara now her 14th day out.

THREE P. M. REPORT.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

Senate remained in session till after 1 o'clock this morning, on the tariff. A long debate during which Broadhead earnestly protested against this system of midnight legislation, on the great interests of the country. The vote by which Adams substitute had been adopted, was reconsidered and then rejected by a tie vote. Hunter offered a substitute, reducing rates of present tariff 20 per cent. Amendment adopted placing raw wool at 23 per cent, that worth 20c or less per pound, free, for Hunter's substitute; adopted, 33 against 12. House bill thus amended passed 20 minutes past one. Adjourned.

House resumed consideration of resolution expelling Gilbert.

Purviance offered a substitute that the House will proceed with the trial, directing the Serg't-at-Arms to summon Triplett and Sweeney to appear before the bar of the House for examination, and that Gilbert appear in person or by counsel.

Stanton asked to have read some part of the manuscript of Simonton's testimony not printed.

Orr objected, saying it was not testimony.

Stanton replied that the House could judge of that.

Purviance's resolution rejected—82 to 109.

Mr. Gilbert rose and said that he was innocent of the charges preferred against him, and that where he was best known, and were he resided for forty years, his character for truth and honesty has never been impeached.

Damaged by the Freshet.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.

Heavy rains fell in Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin on Tuesday and Wednesday last. Rock river rose to an extraordinary height at midnight. On Tuesday the Galena Air Line R. R. bridge at Sterling was entirely destroyed.—Three miles of the track, near Sterling, is under water, and the road bed is in many places gone. Ice is piled up six feet high. The damages between Sterling and Fulton are very serious.—The loss to the Railroad Company is estimated at $100,000. The Illinois Central R. R. bridge at Dixon is uninjured.

Later from Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.

A letter to the Democrat, dated Lecompton 17th, says that Gen. Richardson, Maj. Gen. of the Kansas militia, and member of the territorial council, died at Lecompton on the 14th. The United States Deputy Marshal arrested Capt. Walker a few days since. He was examined by Judge Cato, and held to bail in the sum of $18,000. The bill giving county judges jurisdiction over criminal cases, has passed. By this law, people may be tried before these petty courts without a jury or an indictment.

LESSONS IN

Foreign Languages.

MR. AND MRS. L. S. M. DE CRETY, late from Paris, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.

Gentlemen and ladies who begin to speak either of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. De Crety furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.

The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M.. And in the evening from half past 6 to 8, for conversation.

Mr. DE CRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, as also lessons in Fencing, the use of the Sword, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.

Mr. De Crety will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 15 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.

The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

TO MERCHANTS.—Mr. DE CRETY will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.

BAYLIES & LINCOLN'S
Milwaukee Commercial College

212 and 214 East Water St.,
MILWAUKEE, - - WISCONSIN.

THE proprietors of the Milwaukee Commercial College would respectfully announce that the liberal patronage that has been extended to this deservedly popular enterprise has led them to extend the field of study, so that it will embrace every branch of a thorough Commercial Education. As there are no classes formed in any department of study—(thereby enabling the student to enter any time, each one receiving separate instructions)—the student, on entering, is placed in the Counting Room, with actual transactions to work from, thus making his education not merely theoretical, but practical to the last degree. The Commercial Course comprises Book-Keeping by Double Entry, in its various forms, as adapted to Wholesale, Retail, Commission, Manufacturing, Custom House, Banking, Railroading, in stock partnership, and compound Company business, Commercial Calculations, in per centage, Exchange, Bank and Regular Discount, Averaging, Accounts by Simple and Compound Equations, &c., according to the most approved methods. Commercial Correspondence, including account sales, accounts current, drafts, bills of exchange, &c., &c.

Also, a perfect system of detecting Counterfeit Bank Notes, will be given to each student.

A good Hand Writing guaranteed to every person completing a full course.

During the Seasons, Lectures on Commercial Law will be delivered by eminent legal and business men, and no pains will be spared to make this department particularly attractive.

The Reading Room will be supplied with the various Daily and other papers and publications.

Particular attention will be given to Ladies who may wish to acquire a business education, and separate rooms have been beautifully fitted up for their use.

Merchants and other business men are informed that, at any time, by a few days' notice, they can be supplied with competent Accountants, and young men will be assisted in procuring situations when desired.

For terms and other particulars please address

Every Man his own Miller.
PORTABLE CAST IRON GRAIN MILL.

Young America Improved and Perfected.

THE above mill was patented by Charles Leavett, of Ill., Feb. 27th, 1855. This mill took the first premium at the Ohio State Fair, 1855, over all other mills, and during the fairs of the fall of 1856, the first premiums over many others in the State Fairs of Ohio, New York, Tennessee, Michigan and Minnesota, also, at the County Fairs of the following Counties of Ohio and Indiana, viz: Guernsey, Crawford, Logan, Medina, Ashland, Wayne, Knox, Montgomery, Clark, Erie, Lorain, Richland, Plymouth district, Chester, Frederick. In Indiana, Tippecanoe, Jefferson, Wayne, Fayette, Shelby, Jennings, Warren and Fountain.

Farmers, Saw Mill owners, Livery Stable men and all others feeding stock of any kind are invited to examine the merits and superior advantages of the above mill.

The Young America will grind as much corn in the cob, shelled corn, oats, barley, and all other grains for stock as any mill of the same size and with much less draft.

What we claim is great strength, durability and simplicity, being so simple that a child can learn to grind with safety.

In the next we claim the small expense to renew the grinding parts of the mill, and the ease with which the grinders are put on the mill, at a cost of not over three dollars, which makes it superior and more economical than any other mill. The grinding parts of the above mill are made of the hardest of cast iron, as hard in fact as cast steel can be tempered. Each set will grind from 5,000 to 10,000 bushels of grain, with proper usage. Besides the set of grinders on the mill, an extra set will be sent with each mill sold, making it equal to two common mills. When found necessary to change the grinders, almost any one can do it in twenty minutes.

As a proof of the estimation in which the Young America is held in Ohio, we would state that during the fall, winter and spring of 1855-56, 2600 were made and sold in Ohio, at Zanesville, by Douglas, Smith & Co., Hall & Allen of Mansfield, Eldridge & Faucener of Cincinnati, and at New Philadelphia.

At this time there is not less than 200 being sold every week in Ohio, at retail, besides those sold in other states east and west.

The above mill is being manufactured and can be furnished at wholesale and retail, from the Wisconsin Iron Works of A. J. Langworthy, on the water power in the City of Milwaukee. The mill is warranted perfect in all respects.

Dealers in agricultural implements and machines, of the State of Wisconsin, are requested to call and make arrangements for the sale of the above mills, to whom a liberal discount will be made on the retail price; also any others wishing to engage in a profitable business. Would call attention to good men who have teams, in any part of the State, who would peddle the mills through the country. Four can be taken on a wagon at a time—liberal arrangements would be made with them.

The above mill will grind from 8 to 20 bushels of grain per hour, in accordance with the kind and condition of the grain.

Price of the Young America $50—ready to hitch to and warranted to grind as fast as any mill of the same size when properly worked, and with less draft.

For further information address or see the undersigned, sole owner of the right to the State of Wisconsin.

Dealers in FINE CLOTHING,
231 BROADWAY,
Second door above the Astor House, NEW YORK,

WOULD SUGGEST to the trade, that they will be prepared for Spring sales with their usual extensive stock of the finer qualities of
READY MADE CLOTHING.

In reference to which they would suggest, that the facility with which their goods can be fitted, every garment being marked in lengths and breadths, the same size breast being varied to suit different proportions of the same measure, should give them the preference over any clothing, the sizes of which are indefinitely marked. The difficulty of really suiting patrons from that fact, it is presumed, has been very generally realized. In a word, strict attention is directed in a determination to render our garments equal in every respect to the best custom work.

HEALTHY BREAD!

MADE WITH
JAS. PYLE'S DIETETIC SALERATUS.

THIS article is deprived of the caustic impurities, so well known to exist in all common Saleratus, thereby dealing destruction to thousands no aware of its injurious qualities. So destructive is it to the constitution of children, that where they and the parents have been regular consumers of Saleratus Bread, there is but little chance for recovery from infantile or contagious diseases. In this way thousands meet with premature Death—the sad reality of which is forcibly demonstrated, in the mortality among children, in the New England and other States, where warm bread and cake is so generally consumed.

JAS. PYLE'S DIETETIC SALERATUS Is of vast importance to the public, and is rapidly coming into use. Being deprived of all caustic impurities, it is quite as harmless as flour. In point of economy it excels having powerful raising properties, and is altogether superior to Baking Soda. No intelligent lady will dispute this after trying it.

It is packed in round packages, each bearing the name of James Pyle, without which it is not genuine. For sale by John Furlong & Co., O. A. Folsom, Chapin & Greggory, Milwaukee; Ethridge, Shoemaker & Co., Madison. E. H. Jones & Bro., Fond du Lac, Wis.; A. Gross & Coag, Chicago.

Prairie du Chien Land Agency.

THE UNDERSIGNED having purchased an interest in the Prairie du Chien, (lower town) offers on reasonable terms two hundred (200) lots, situated near the depot grounds of the M. & M. R. R. Co. I am ready to offer inducements that cannot be surpassed in the State, both as to price, terms and location, to all wishing to purchase a site for business or a desirable residence.

The City of Prairie du Chien being the
and situated on the banks of the Mississippi river, tributary to which is the whole State of Iowa and Minnesota. It is unnecessary to make any comments, for it is too evident that it must be the second city of Wisconsin.

To any person wishing to make investments, I would say that I have the agency of a large amount of desirable lots owned by the American Transportation Company, in addition to my own, and hereby offer my services to any who desire to make an investment that will prove that Prairie du Chien is the Point to Double Your Money in Twelve Months.

To my old friends, Railroad Conductors and all others, I will say—call and see me, and you will be sure to be rewarded.
